FALL 2023 - THE DIVISION OF CONTINUING EDUCATION AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

NOTE FROM PROGRAM STAFF

Greetings Students!

Thank you for your interest in the Institute for Learning in Retirement (ILR), a program in Continuing Education and Workforce Development at Bergen Community College. Choose from an exciting selection of courses both in-person and online. We hope you'll join us for the ILR's Fall 2023 Semester! Courses will continue to be facilitated by dedicated volunteer instructors, passionate about the content they share with you.

Registration begins on Wednesday, September 13, 2023. After purchasing a fall semester membership for $125.00, students can register online, over the phone or in-person for up to five courses of their choosing, plus bonus courses. The ILR semester runs Tuesday, September 26 to Friday, December 15.

If you are interested in volunteering to teach for the ILR please contact the ILR office at (201) 447-7156 or ilr@bergen.edu.

About the Institute for Learning in Retirement

The Institute for Learning in Retirement (ILR), a program in Continuing Education and Workforce Development at Bergen Community College, serves the intellectual and social needs of a vibrant community of lifelong learners. Our members have a thirst for learning. Membership is open to all persons, 55 years and older. Current members come from a wide range of experiences and backgrounds. There are no educational prerequisites, no exams, and no grades. Courses are taught by members and experts from the larger community who volunteer their time to share their knowledge and passions. Each semester's offerings cover a broad range of topics.

Instructors receive a free membership during the semester they are teaching.

One fee of $125.00 per semester, entitles members to attend up to five (5) courses, plus bonus courses.

Why You Should Join

- To become part of a community created specifically to meet the lifelong educational interests and needs of mature adults.
- To have social interaction with other ILR members during classes and other organizational activities.
- To enjoy classes and activities in a diverse and multi-generational college campus setting.
- To have access and borrowing privileges at Bergen Community College Sidney Silverman Library.
- To be able to use the Paramus campus Fitness Center and pool during scheduled free-time hours.

Benefits of Membership

Cafeteria

BCC Campus Dining (Pitkin Building, 2nd Floor) is open Monday to Thursday 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.; Friday 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Starbucks is located in the Student Center (Pitkin Building) and is open weekdays 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Hours vary during holidays and breaks.

Dental Hygiene Clinic

This on-campus program is open to ILR members with a Student ID card. Call (201) 447-7180 for an appointment. There is a minimal charge for this service.

Paramus Campus Fitness Center (S-128) and Swimming Pool

ILR members may use the facilities during scheduled free-time hours (which may vary throughout the year). Members should call the Bergen Community College's main number at (201) 447-7100 to confirm hours of operation.

Fitness Center Schedule and Medical Release forms are available in the Office of Health Service room HS 100 Pitkin. You must complete a Medical Release form and return it to room HS 100 to receive a medical card before you can use the facilities. You must also present your Student ID card.

Sidney Silverman Library

ILR members have access and borrowing privileges at Bergen Community College Sidney Silverman Library by presenting their Student ID card at the desk.

Tips for In-Person and Online Classes

In-Person Classes

Before the start of their first class, the ILR will email students their classroom information and parking tips. The ILR website's "News and Media" page will have a downloadable list of classrooms at the start of the semester. A list of classrooms will also be posted outside Public Safety and the ILR office.

Last Minute Classroom Changes: Students will be notified of any changes to their classroom by email or by phone. The ILR phone recording at (201) 447-7156 will also have last-minute changes, and changes will be posted outside the ILR Office and Public Safety,

Common Classroom Locations

A-104 is on the first floor near the Student Center area of the Pitkin Education Center. It is down a small hall near the restrooms across from the One-Stop Registration.

TEC-201 and other TEC classrooms are in The Technology Building. Enter from either side of the building and take the stairs or elevator up to the second floor.

S-343 is in the Pitkin Education Center Science (S) Wing.

- Use the South Entrance to Pitkin which faces the outdoor courtyard. You will see Public Safety on your right and elevators on your left.
- Take the elevators up to the third floor. Head right past the water fountain and restrooms through a doorway into a long hallway with a brownish orange floor.
- When the doors turn green you have entered the Science Wing. Walk a bit further and take your first left passing a bank of vending machines. S-343 is a few doors down on the left.

Online Classes

Online classes are through Webex. Before your first class you will receive a link to log on. This will be the same link for every class. Log into your class 10 minutes in advance to address any connection needs. In the event of technical difficulties during class, please check your email for updates.

For assistance with Webex reach out to:

- HelpDesk Media Technology Department: (201) 879-7109, ext. 3.
- ILR: (201) 447-7156
- Continuing Education and Workforce Development: (201) 447-7488

Minimum computing requirements for online classes:

- A reliable internet connection
- A laptop with a built-in webcam and microphone or a smartphone or table
- An internet browser (Google Chrome, or Mozilla Firefox)

NEW INSTRUCTOR! BONUS COURSE

IR-980: The Secret WWII Concentration Camp Diary of Odd Nansen

Hailed by The New Yorker as "among the most compelling documents to come out of the war," From Day to Day is a World War II concentration camp diary—one of only a handful ever translated into English—secretly written by Odd Nansen, a Norwegian. Arrested in January 1942, Nansen, son of polar explorer and humanitarian Fridtjof Nansen (Nobel Peace Prize, 1922), was held captive in various Nazi camps in Norway and Germany. This inspiring diary brilliantly illuminates Nansen's daily struggle, not only to survive, but to preserve his sanity and maintain his humanity. After having been out of print for over 60 years, Timothy Boyce rescued the diary from oblivion after reading the memoir of another Holocaust survivor, whose life, as a 10-year-old boy, was saved by Nansen while both were prisoners in Sachsenhausen. Nansen's diary is remarkable on many levels: as an eloquent personal record, as an eyewitness account of the Holocaust, and as an inspiring example of the human spirit at its best. Through selected readings, Tim will explain who Nansen was, why he was arrested, why he wrote the diary, how he preserved it, and why this diary is as important today as it was when first written.

IR-993 Collecting Art in the Gilded Age

In late 19th and early 20th century America, wealthy collectors began to emulate the European aristocracy, building new mansions and assembling vast collections of paintings, sculptures, and tapestries to decorate them. Working with dealers and architects, they formed the nucleus of what would become some of our most prestigious museums today. With an emphasis on New York City, this class will examine key figures in this movement, like Henry Clay Frick (The Frick Collection), J. P. Morgan (The Morgan Library and Museum and the Metropolitan Museum), George Grey Barnard (The Cloisters), and Isabella Stewart Gardner (Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, Boston), the dealers who supplied them, and the extraordinary objects they coveted.

IR-860 Financial Planning in Retirement

Retirement is often looked as a 'finish line.' In reality, it is a new phase in your financial life which can span as long as your working years. Retirement typically presents more questions than answers. What will be my medical expenses? Who will make decisions on my behalf if I have diminished financial capacity? What are my insurance needs? Most importantly, will I outlive my retirement assets? This course analyzes many aspects of financial planning including investment management, insurance planning, tax planning, and estate planning. The objective of this course is to help retirees navigate through the uncertainty of retirement and plan accordingly.

IR-503 Hardly Camelot: The Political JFK

Mid-20th Century American politics was a series of street fights...not medieval jousting tournaments. John F. Kennedy was undefeated in political street fighting from working class Boston's 1946 11th U.S. Congressional District race to the Century's most controversial Presidential election 14 years later. When he was cut down by an assassin's bullet in Dallas, JFK was in the midst of yet another street fight...a Texas Democratic civil war that threatened his own 1964 reelection. "Hardly Camelot" will examine all the street fights...including Kennedy's stunning 1952 Senate takedown of incumbent Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. and the chaotic 1956 Democratic National Convention that propelled JFK to the 1960 Democratic nomination.

Thursdays In-person: 9/28, 10/5, 10/12, 10/19, 10/26, 11/2

IR-911 Mindfulness Meditation in Nature

Mindfulness meditation is a mind-body practice that involves focusing your attention on the present moment. It helps us find connection, focus, and peace, and is a natural starting point for reflection. When we do these practices outdoors, we can more fully open to the beauty, wonder and joy that nature and life offer us. In this class we will learn about the benefits of mindfulness, and practice together. We will start each session in the classroom, and then stroll gently and mindfully on the grounds surrounding the building, letting the trees, wildlife and sky become our teachers. No experience required.

IR-970 Film Program 1: A Little of This

At our age, we sometimes have forgotten a film, or a section of a film that we liked, moreover, there are many films we have never seen, and we should have. I have endeavored to bring those two concepts together in a lecture series that will be fun, snippets from different genres.

1. Songs and Dances That You Should Have Seen, But Didn't (Living in a Big Way, Small Town Girl)
2. 1's, 2's and 3's Small but Important Moments of Great Acting Among These Groups or Persons (Dodsworth, Grand Hotel)
3. Great Speeches Monologues of Importance or Beauty (Henry V, Devil's Advocate, Braveheart)
4. Makes and Remakes: matching scenes in a remake to compare the art (The Letter, Invasion of the Body Snatchers)
5. Fronts and Backs: the beginning and end of some great films and why they are great (TBD)

IR-976 Road Trippin' USA - Explore National Parks and Hidden Gems

America the Beautiful! Whether you love to hit the open road, prefer to live vicariously through the photo spreads in Conde Nast Traveler, or fall somewhere in between, you are welcome to join this 3-session photo journey through some of our nation's most beautiful national parks and hidden gems of the West. Learn about the best times to visit, must-see areas, and under-rated natural wonders.

- Session 1: Utah – So much more than the Big Five. Travelers flock to gawk at the natural wonders of Arches, Zion, and Bryce National Parks. Utah is home to other-worldly landscapes, hoodoos, slot canyons, and one of America's most beautiful highways. Wet your whistle with an exploration of the Big Five as well as some lesser known - and equally beautiful landscapes.

- Session 2: Montana – The glaciers are melting! Don't miss these photographic highlights of Glacier National Park, Yellowstone, and some of the beautiful, little-explored pockets in between.

- Session 3: Oregon – From Coast to Mountain, Oregon has something for every adventurous traveler. See photos of some treasured spots, taken just days before the devastating wildfires of August 2020.

IR-971 Film Program 2: Suspension of Disbelief

Films about the supernatural are plentiful these days. They, however, are usually about larger-than-life heroes, combatting to save the world! I have tried to select "smaller" films where the supernatural is almost normal. That's why some of these films are from bygone times (that we all recognize) JOIN US, SUSPEND!

1) "The Night Has 1,000 Eyes" (Edward G

Robinson) A vaudeville performer....maybe!

2) "The Devil and Daniel Webster" (Edward Arnold, Walter Huston)

3) "Stranger than Fiction" (Will Farrell, Emma Thompson, Queen Latifa)

4) "Death Takes a Holiday" (Fredrick March)

5) "The Devil's Advocate" (Keanu Reeves, Al Pacino)

AND AS A BONUS, a film that has nothing to do with anything, but a good time, GUARANTEED!

6) "The House of Games" (written and directed by David Mamet; starring Lindsay Crouse) - a noted psychologist attempts to learn the secrets of a gambling racket!

IR-989 Modern America Emerges

When the Constitution was ratified in 1789, most Americans lived in rural areas and worked as farmers. Other than the forced migration of Africans, most Americans had immigrated from northern Europe, or descended from those who did. The years after the Civil War saw vast changes in the economy and demographics of the country. Gradually, the economic vitality and ethnic diversity that we associate with the modern American state began to take shape. This class will examine these changes, as well as the reactions to the new American landscape.
