Join the Institute of Learning in Retirement for a showing of the Yogi Berra documentary “It Ain’t Over” (2022) followed by a virtual Q&A with Executive Producer Lindsay Berra, an accomplished sports journalist and the granddaughter of Yogi Berra. BCC professors Mark Altschuler and Brian Altano will provide a brief introduction to this film as well as lead a virtual Q&A following the film with Lindsay Berra. This film runs 1 hour and 38 minutes with the Q&A starting shortly after at 2:45 PM. Please visit the film trailer here: <https://www.imdb.com/title/tt13840536/>

“An intimate portrait of a misunderstood American icon, this emotional and uplifting documentary about Yogi Berra takes us beyond the caricatures and “Yogisms,” and into the heart of a sports legend whose unparalleled accomplishments on the baseball diamond were often overshadowed by his off-the-field persona.”—Vanishing Angle

IR-678 Creative Aging - Thursdays May 16 and May 23; 2:30 PM to 3:30 PM. (TEC-201) NEW! not listed in catalog

We grow as we age and still have so much to offer. Discover more about yourself during this course led by Lorraine O’Brien, a certified Life Coach. There will be instruction and encouragement to help you discover more about yourself.

New ILR instructor Lorraine O’Brien will be leading this course. After marrying at 19, Lorraine raised 5 children and a nephew. On weekends she took in foster children. Divorcing after 25 years of marriage, Lorraine put herself through college. She ultimately became a legal secretary working in New York City for a top divorce attorney. After retirement Lorraine became a life coach, massage therapist, motivational speaker and a scuba diver. We are never finished!
